[Handwritten response area for question 1, mostly crossed out with a large X.]

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

I wish we could dive deeper into unreal engine than we have so far. Also, the computers we have limit us extremely in the class room. I'd love to see that change in the future.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

I think the course as is will be fine, As I said above I'd love to see things like pc's with better ram and being able to dive deeper.

Thorough instructor knowledge of subject matter.
Good eye for detail. Good instructional techniques.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

~~A~~ instructor stretched too thin 8 courses in one semester = OVERLOADED instructor. MMA needs more than one instructor for an entire curriculum.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

Fantastic course, fantastic instructor!

1. Your perceptions of the strengths of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments helped you to learn the content or the skills required in this course?

Hands on with Adobe Animate, follow alongs, ample time for questions. Chats & drafts.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

The focus on UX concept vs. the focus on getting AE to make things work.
 I ~~am~~ tend to overthink things & realize that for I have gained more from using Animate minus the UX component. The Textbook is strange, she does emphasize UX, though, it just seems separate.
 - Access to Adobe Animate CC online material limited

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

Be more clear on the requirements on Big Projects. I typically spend Days on something that should have taken hours... but I attribute that to my own obsessiveness on minor detail.
 All constructive criticism aside (from my perspective)
 Mrs E. is great at corresponding through email and instructs on a level playing field.

The first part of the class is an interactive lecture activity. She explains what we need to learn in a fun, creative way that keeps me interested and excited. The second half is going through the ways to use a program, which I believed well.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

I have experienced no weaknesses in her teaching methods.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

I have none. She is one of the best teachers I have ever had.

1. Your perceptions of the strenghts of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments helped you to learn the content or the skills required in this course.

The use of XAMPP to simulate a working server

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

That it's online -- it's more convenient for me, but interaction is limited, and some videos might be useful

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

Make some videos/lectures on the subject matter. While the internet and books are good resources (and she does provide quite a few of them) it would be much more helpful to have them in a video format to reinforce the material.

1. Your perceptions of the strenghts of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments helped you to learn the content or the skills required in this course.

The Web Commerce book includes everything you need to know, with examples, as well as a CD-ROM with all of the example code/scripts organized by chapter. This way, if I am struggling with something, I can always run scripts from the cd-rom on my server stack, while examining the various .html, .js, .php documents closely so I can see for myself: "Oh, that's how that works." Also, several relevant web references are available to aid me in this. The parallel project is a great idea for the course-long project.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

I think the teaching method is just fine. I myself am struggling only because I'm expected to be fluent in JavaScript, which I should be, considering it was a course of last semester. This is the real deal and it is fast paced. I know there are several ways to get from A to B... but somehow I feel like I need to follow a specific format. I find myself on Stack Overflow quite often and W3 Schools, as well as PHP.net. I think I lost the JavaScript part of my brain over the Winter... which is my fault. "...you don't use it you lose it." I've started the forms over from scratch several times and am over-complicating things.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

Ms E. is very supportive, patient, and gives positive affirmations of encouragement. The assignments are fair and we are given adequate time to complete them. She also reinforces the "Keep it simple!" motto, which, honestly, is something I've never been able to wrap my head around.

I still think online courses should come with Skype Meetings :]

1. Your perceptions of the strenghts of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments helped you to learn the content or the skills required in this course.

This course has really got me thinking in terms of building and promoting a "professional" web presence for myself on the Internet. An abundance of very helpful links were provided. I am excited to re-brand myself with consistency and professionalism across several social media platforms and to build an outstanding portfolio. I've got a lot more use out of Adobe Illustrator, which I am starting to love.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

I'm still not sure if I am branding myself as an individual, i.e. "John Smith" or as a company with a name and logo that represents who I am. "Smith Studio." How about "John Smith Studio?" Still unsure. I attribute this to myself not reaching out as much as I should. After all, closed mouths don't get fed.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

Skype meetings (by appointment only), perhaps 15 minute windows. I think that would be a great asset to the learning/correspondence experience for online classes, and perhaps those who can not make it to the campus. Online classes must be difficult to conduct! I can only imagine the stress from the instructor's end.

1. Your perceptions of the strenghts of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments helped you to learn the content or the skills required in this course.

Diving into the core files of WordPress really helped me see through the front end User Interface and gain a greater understanding of how the content management system works. Creating custom PHP scripts and seeing the relationship of the Content, MetaData, Categories, and all aspects of the CMS to the MySQL database. On the surface, a CMS such as WordPress, in particular which we have been focusing on, is easy as bread and butter from a standpoint of creating a web presence with little or no knowledge of Web Programming Languages. However, in this course, we have been taking a greater look at the actual code composition and complex development elements that make up the Content Management System. This has been particularly beneficial to me, as I have grown to start the process of breaking away from the DIY Web Design and have begun to look seriously into the intricate programming involved in making the CMS possible for your "1-2-3 snap!" Website Design. A really great kick in the behind that I needed! I was encouraged to look into developing my own plugin, yet I have not looked much into it yet. I learned how to easily migrate an entire Wordpress site from host to host. I realize that I have even much to learn about the front end development.. i.e. metadata, categories, tags, permalinks, RSS feeds, etc. The teaching method was/is, in my opinion, well thought out and appropriate. Many resources were provided including relevant links and Textbook material.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

Being that I am a seasoned WordPress "drag'n'dropper," in WordPress, I felt at times not challenged enough, therefore I don't think I applied myself as much as I could have. I was slightly disenchanted with the simplicity of some of the projects involving things like displaying a post, or adding a widget/plugin. I believe I did the bare minimum, which is no fault but my own. Also, I am not sure if the Wordpress site was supposed to coincide with the Self Promotion class, what exactly I was expected of at times. Yet I am a chronic over-thinker. and I guess you'll have that!

Note* I feel like I am obligated to be constructively critical in this segment, so I really just dug down deep to think of anything that was unpleasant to myself personally. Yet, I am the student, and prideful to a fault, and am quickly humbled by the things that I "think I know". I really have NO negative feelings about the teaching method or assignments in this course from Ms. Elinich.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

I think it's a wonderful introduction to WordPress. I only suggest that I live closer so I can stop in and bug Ms. E with questions. =] I am finding that I am more of a face-to-face person when it comes to receiving clarity on an issue. Ms. E is prompt with email correspondences, but as with any online course, I suppose, one like myself might benefit from more face-time.

A++ Ms. E.

Assignment is always been my support for my each course. Different links of websites for detail information helped me a lot.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

I wish there could be a professor made videos for more illustration of chapter that we are on. As this is not to be mentioned, I request every professor of CCAC to please post the due date on "MY DO TO" list. Because this is the place we check out assignments which are due soon.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

I really appreciate Professor Elinich, Rebecca for this online course. Her way to giving students materials is really effective and working. As i told before, Professor made videos will have make this class more effective.

The Assignments outside of the 5 main projects were challenging and gave us something to work on outside of our usual assignments. The extra material outside of the book was very much welcomed and helped in assignments where we got stuck.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

the grading of the assignments seemed erratic and as of writing, I still do not know what a majority of my projects are graded as.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

it has helped me understand javascript and JQuery better then before I took this course. It being an online class it was a bit of a hard time trying to focus on getting things done though.

My course was online and I really enjoyed the discussion board questions each week. It was helpful to read the replies from other students about each topic to generate more questions and answers from myself.

2. Your perceptions of the weaknesses of this course. What particular teaching methods or assignments were not helpful to you in learning? Why not?

In my opinion, the reading was extensive each week. Being a multimedia course, it would have been more beneficial to have hands-on learning learning activities.

3. Your opinion of the overall effectiveness of this course. What suggestions, if any, do you have for helping the instructor to improve the teaching methods and assignments in this course?

The course was very effective, and I was able to learn more about JavaScript, JQuery and HTML5 in a short period of time. Ms. Elinich was a very good instructor.
